Plaintiff AM Research Group, LLC ("AMRG") brings this Complaint against Defendant Matrix Composites & Engineering (US), Inc. ("Matrix") for patent infringement. In support, AMRG respectfully shows as follows:¹

I. THE PARTIES

1. AMRG is a Texas limited liability company with its principal place of business in Texas.

2. Matrix is a Texas corporation, which may be served through its registered agent: CT Corporation System, 1999 Bryan St., Suite 900, Dallas, TX 75201-3136.

¹ AMRG's allegations relating to itself are based on personal knowledge, while AMRG's allegations relating to Matrix are made upon information and belief.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Matrix because it conducts business in this district, the State of Texas, and in the United States. This Court also has personal jurisdiction over Matrix because it has committed acts of patent infringement, induced acts of patent infringement by others, contributed to patent infringement by others, and/or advertised infringing products in this district, the State of Texas, and in the United States. Matrix is subject to the Court's general jurisdiction from regularly doing or soliciting business in this district and Texas, as well as deriving substantial revenue from goods and services provided to persons or entities in this district and Texas.

5. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b) because Matrix is a Texas corporation. Venue is also proper because Matrix is subject to personal jurisdiction in this district, Matrix has regularly conducted business in this district, and Matrix's acts complained of have occurred in this district.

III. THE PATENT-IN-SUIT AND STANDING

6. The United States Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”) duly and legally issued U.S. Patent No. 6,435,775 (“775 patent”) after a full and fair examination. A copy of the ‘775 patent is attached as Exhibit A and incorporated here by reference.

7. AMRG is the exclusive licensee of all substantial rights of and to the ‘775 patent and possesses all rights of recovery for past, present, and/or future infringement of the ‘775 patent.

IV. MATRIX’S PATENT INFRINGEMENT

8. AMRG incorporates the preceding paragraphs by reference.

9. The ‘775 patent is valid and presumed valid under 35 U.S.C. § 282. The ‘775 patent is also enforceable.

10. The requirements of 35 U.S.C. § 287 have been fully complied with during all relevant time periods. AMRG has provided notice to Matrix of its infringement. There is no limitation on damages.

11. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), Matrix has infringed one or more of the ‘775 patent claims by making, using, offering for sale, selling, importing, and/or renting Matrix’s offshore buoyancy systems and modules made to work with risers, which fall within the scope of one or more of the claims of the ‘775 patent.

At all relevant time periods, Matrix had the requisite intent to be held liable for indirect infringement, including, but not limited to, having actual knowledge of the ‘775 patent² and instructing its third party customers on the use of Matrix’s products in an infringing manner.

13. Matrix’s acts of infringement have caused and will continue to cause AMRG damage. Matrix is liable to AMRG in an amount that adequately compensates AMRG for Matrix’s infringement, which can be no less than a reasonable royalty together with interest and costs pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.

14. AMRG’s damage will continue unless and until enjoined by this Court. These infringing acts have caused and will continue to cause immediate and irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.
